The Single Market Act has been adopted by the European Commission on 27 October 2010. It consists of 50 policy proposals that are being submitted to public debate for a four month period running up to 28 February 2011. Following this, the Commission will propose to seal the commitment of the other Institutions on a final version of the Single Market Act.

The Single Market Act and the on-line debate are available in the 23 official languages of the European Union at http://ec.europa.eu/internal_market/smact/
