

CONTRACTUAL SERVICE SUPPLIERS AND INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONALS

1. Each Party shall allow the supply of services in its territory by contractual service suppliers or independent professionals of the other Party through the presence of natural persons, in accordance with Article X.X [Contractual service suppliers and independent professionals], for the sectors listed in this Annex and subject to the relevant limitations.
2. The list below is composed of the following elements:
 - (a) the first column indicating the sector or sub-sector for which the category of [contractual service suppliers and] independent professionals is liberalised; and
 - (b) the second column describing the applicable limitations.
3. In addition to the list of reservations in this Annex, each Party may adopt or maintain a measure relating to qualification requirements, qualification procedures, technical standards, licensing requirements or licensing procedures that does not constitute a limitation within the meaning of Article [Contractual service suppliers and independent professionals]. These measures may include, in particular, the need to obtain a licence, obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors or to pass specific examinations, such as language examinations, to fulfil a membership requirement of a particular profession, such as membership in a professional organisation, or any other non-discriminatory requirements that certain activities may not be carried out in protected zones or areas. While not listed, such measures continue to apply. .
4. The Parties do not undertake any commitment for contractual service suppliers and independent professionals in economic activities which are not listed.
5. In identifying individual sectors and sub-sectors: CPC means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC prov., 1991.
6. In the sectors where economic needs tests are applied, their main criteria will be the assessment of:

- (a) for Chile, the relevant market situation in Chile; and
- (b) for the Union, the relevant market situation in the Member State or the region where the service is to be provided, including with respect to the number of, and the impact on, services suppliers who are already supplying a service when the assessment is made.

7. The schedules in paragraphs [10 to 13] apply only to the territories of Chile and the Union in accordance with Article [Institutional – Geographical application] and are only relevant in the context of trade relations between the Union and its Member States with Chile. They do not affect the rights and obligations of the Member States under Union law.

8. For greater certainty, for the Union, the obligation to grant national treatment does not entail the requirement to extend to natural or legal persons of Chile the treatment granted in a Member State, in application of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, or of any measure adopted pursuant to that Treaty, including their implementation in the Member States, to:

- (a) natural persons or residents of another Member State; or
- (b) legal persons constituted or organised under the law of another Member State or of the Union and having their registered office, central administration or principal place of business in the Union.
