<td>CANADA</td>
<td>Negotiating directives obtained in April 2009</td>
<td>The European Commission has adopted on 5 July 2016 draft proposals for Council Decisions on the signature, provisional application and conclusion of the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) and submitted this to the Council for adoption. The Council has adopted the CETA proposal on 28 October to allow the signature and the provisional application of CETA. The agreement was signed on 30 October 2016 during the EU Canada bilateral Summit. The European Parliament gave its consent to CETA on 15 February 2017. On 21 September 2017, the agreement has entered into force provisionally.</td>
<td>CETA will enter into force fully and definitively when all EU Member States parliaments have ratified the Agreement. 10 Member States have not ratified the agreement so far Belgium, Bulgaria, Cyprus, France, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Poland and Slovenia.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ASEAN</td>
<td>Negotiating directives obtained in April 2007</td>
<td>Negotiations for a trade agreement with a regional grouping of 7 ASEAN Member States started in July 2007 and were suspended in December 2009. In March 2017, an EU-ASEAN Joint Working Group was created to discuss the parameters of a future ASEAN-EU region-to-region agreement. The Joint Working Group so far met three times. In September 2022, the EU-ASEAN Economic Ministers Consultations decided to re-orient the focus (and the work of the Joint Working Group) to sectoral cooperation on 1) digital economy, 2) green technologies and green services and 3) supply chain resilience. The Joint Working Group met in June 2023 and on 15 March 2024</td>

<tr>
<td>SINGAPORE</td>
<td>Based on 2007 ASEAN negotiating directives (see above)</td>
<td>The Free Trade Agreement with Singapore entered into force on 21 November 2019. The Investment Protection Agreement (IPA) will further need to be ratified by all EU Member States according to their own national procedures before it can enter into force. 10 Member States have not ratified the agreement yet Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, The Netherlands, Poland, Slovenia.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MALAYSIA</td>
<td>Based on 2007 ASEAN negotiating directives (see above)</td>
<td>Trade and investment negotiations with Malaysia were launched in 2010 and, after seven rounds of negotiation, put on hold in April 2012 at the request of Malaysia. The EU is looking for a comprehensive and ambitious agreement. Malaysia ratified in September 2022 the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership and recently took a more open approach to the possible relaunch of bilateral negotiations with the EU. Both sides recently agreed to engage in a technical stocktaking process, which is ongoing.</td>

<tr>
<td>VIETNAM</td>
<td>Based on 2007 ASEAN negotiating directives (see above)</td>
<td>The Free Trade Agreement with Vietnam entered into force on 1 August 2020. The Investment Protection Agreement will further need to be ratified by all EU Member States according to their own national procedures before it can enter into force. 11 Member States have not ratified the agreement so far Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Malta, The Netherlands, Poland, Slovenia.</td>

<tr>
<td>THAILAND</td>
<td>Based on 2007 ASEAN negotiating directives (see above)</td>
<td>Negotiations on a trade agreement with Thailand were launched in March 2013. Four rounds took place until April 2014 and negotiations were then paused. Following the successful conclusion of a mapping exercise with Thailand, the relaunch of the third round of negotiations is scheduled for the week of 17 June 2024, in Brussels.</td>

<td>PHILIPPINES</td>
<td>Trade and investment negotiations with the Philippines were launched in December 2015. Two negotiating rounds were held so far: in May 2016 and February 2017. On 18 March 2024, the EU and the Philippines announced the resumption of FTA negotiations. The next round of negotiations is expected to take place later this year.</td>

<td>MYANMAR/</td>
<td>Negotiating directives for an investment protection agreement adopted in March 2014</td>
<td>The EU sent its text proposal in December 2014. Four rounds of negotiations have taken place so far: 9-12 February 2015, 25-29 May 2015, 21-23 September 2015, and 13-16 December 2016. Technical discussions were held on 26-27 April 2017, and good progress was made, but discussions will have to continue. Negotiations are halted since 2017.</td>

<td>INDIA</td>
<td>Negotiating directives adopted in April 2007 and reviewed in 2011 to cover investment protection.</td>
<td>Negotiations for a trade agreement with India were launched in June 2007 and brought to a de facto standstill in 2013 due to a serious gap in the levels of ambitions. The EU-India Leaders’ Meeting held on 8 May 2021 agreed to resume negotiations for an ambitious and comprehensive free trade agreement (FTA) and to launch separate negotiations for an Investment Protection Agreement (IPA) and an Agreement on Geographical Indications (GIs). EU negotiating texts covering 18 FTA chapters and the IPA were shared with India on 31 March 2022. Seven FTA, five IPA and five GIs negotiations rounds have been held so far. A restricted session on Services &amp; Investment took place in between two rounds on 15 – 19 January 2024 in New Delhi. The Next (8th) round should take place in June in Brussels, but the concrete date still needs to be confirmed by India. There is no date for a next IPA round as the EU is waiting for the Indian counterproposal on dispute settlement without which further talks are difficult to hold. The sixth (virtual) round of GIs negotiations will take place during the week of 11 March 2024.</td>

The seventh round took place on 19-23 February 2024 in New Delhi.

JAPAN
Data flows
The negotiating directives for the EU-Japan EPA were adopted on in November 2012. The agreement was concluded on 8 December 2017 and signed on 17 July 2018, including a review clause on data flows. Negotiating Directives on data flows were adopted on 26 September 2022.

The negotiations are taking place in the framework of the EU-Japan Economic Partnership Agreement that contains an explicit review clause on data flows. The first round of negotiations on data flow took place on 24 October 2022 in Brussels. The seventh round took place in Tokyo on 5-6 September and we continued text based discussions.

The next formal round will be on 2-3 October 2023 in Brussels.

OCEANIA

| AUSTRALIA | Negotiating directives adopted in May 2018.
Fifteen negotiating rounds held since the launch in June 2018, the last one in April 2023. Ministerial meetings on 5-6 June 2023 and 10-11 July 2023. Negotiations stalled following Australian refusal before the Ministerial meeting in Osaka on 29/31 October 2023 to negotiate on the basis of the outcome prepared for conclusion so far. Australia reverted to previous high demands for access for sensitive products (beef and lamb in particular). Finally, no meetings took place in Osaka as a result. | No further meetings scheduled for the moment. Australians mentioned resumption only in 2025 with new Commission and new Australian government. |
| NEW ZEALAND | Negotiating directives adopted in May 2018.
Twelve negotiating rounds held since the launch in June 2018, the last one in March 2022. Negotiations concluded on 30 June 2022. The FTA was signed on 9 July 2023. The European Parliament gave its consent on 22 November 2023 and the Council took the decision to formally conclude the FTA on 27 November 2023, which was legally the last step on the EU's side before the FTA can enter into force. | Ratification by the Parliament of New Zealand. |
| MERCOSUR | Negotiating Directives of 1999 | An agreement in principle was reached on the trade part on 28 June 2019. The agreement will remove the majority of tariffs on EU exports to Mercosur, saving over €4 billion worth of duties per year. Mercosur countries will protect some 350 European Geographical Indications from imitation. The agreement will create new opportunities by opening up services sectors and government procurement markets at central level. It sets the highest standards for food safety and consumer protection. It safeguards the Parties’ right to regulate in the public interest and preserves the right to organise public services in the way they consider appropriate. The trade and sustainable development chapter includes strong provisions on labour rights and environmental protection, including a commitment to effectively implement the Paris Climate Agreement and explicit reference to the precautionary principle. In the EU-Mercosur meeting at Ministerial level in the margins of the EU-CELAC Summit (18 July 2023), both sides reconfirmed their joint commitment to conclude the EU-Mercosur Agreement swiftly. In September 2023, the EU received from Mercosur a number of “room” documents in response to the EU’s “Additional Instrument”. Intense technical work between the two parties has been constant over the last six months and the two parties remain strongly engaged towards conclusion at the appropriate political time. | The texts and market access schedules of the trade part of the agreement have been published. Both sides are engaged in the legal revision of the agreement. Once finalised, the texts and offers will need to undergo translation into all EU languages, before the Commission can start the necessary internal procedures for the transmission of the agreement to the Council and European Parliament. Given the concerns over deforestation and the environment, the Commission proposed an “Additional Instrument” to Mercosur in March 2023 on how to strengthen the sustainable development dimension of the EU-Mercosur Agreement. Chief Negotiators are meeting regularly, with the next virtual meeting tentatively scheduled at the end of June. |
|---|---|---|
| MEXICO | Negotiating Directives of 2016 | An agreement in principle was reached on the trade part on 21 April 2018 and supplemented with the agreement on public procurement (sub-central) reached on 28 April 2020. The modernised EU-Mexico agreement will replace the EU-Mexico | The texts of the trade part of the agreement have been published. Once the Commission procedures are finalised, the texts will need to undergo translation into all EU languages, before the Commission can start the necessary internal procedures for the transmission of the agreement to the Council and European Parliament. |
| CHILE | Negotiating Directives of 2017 | On 9 December 2022, the EU and Chile reached the political conclusion of the modernisation of the existing EU-Chile association agreement. The modernised agreement will be called “Advanced Framework Agreement”, “Acuerdo Marco Avanzado” (AMA) in Spanish. It will be accompanied by an Interim Free Trade Agreement (IFTA) concluded as an EU-only agreement [with Article 207 TFEU as legal basis]. The texts of the Agreement (Trade and Investment) were published on DG Trade’s website on 14 December 2022. After the political conclusion, the agreement underwent the legal scrubbing, which was completed at the end of April. After this, the texts need to be translated into all EU languages so that the Commission can start the necessary internal procedures for the transmission of the agreement to the Council and European Parliament. The objective is to have the agreements signed before the end of 2023. |
| ANDEAN COMMUNITY | The EU has a comprehensive trade agreement with Colombia and Peru. The agreement has been provisionally applied with Peru since 1 March 2013 and with Colombia since 1 August 2013. On 1 January 2017, Ecuador joined the trade agreement. All Member States have ratified the agreement with Colombia and Peru and 1 Member State (Luxembourg) has not yet ratified the agreement with Ecuador. The agreement and protocol of accession are therefore only provisionally applied, On the Andean countries side, Colombia has not yet ratified the Accession Protocol of Croatia. After full entry into force the EU will undertake a reflection on how to improve the sustainability dimension of the Agreement. The next, 11th meeting of the Trade Committee and respective sub-committees are taking place on yet not specified dates in the third quarter of 2024 in Brussels. |
| CENTRAL AMERICA | The EU and the Central American region concluded a new Association Agreement, signed on 29 June 2012. The trade pillar of the Association Agreement has been provisionally applied since 1st August 2013 with Honduras, Nicaragua and Panama, since 1st October 2013 with Costa Rica and El Salvador, and since 1 December 2013 with Guatemala. Following completion of the ratification process on the EU side, the agreement fully applies as of 1 May 2024. The EU will undertake a reflection with Central American counterparts on how to improve the sustainability dimension of the EU – Central America Association Agreement. Initial discussion took place during the EU-CA Association Committee in Trademeeting on 20 June 2024 in Brussels. Parties agreed to hold a first technical meeting in the fall 2024. |

<td>TURKEY</td>
<td>Draft Negotiating directives adopted by Commission on 21 December 2016. Council started its deliberations on the Commission’s proposal on 20 January 2017. The General Affairs Council meeting of 26 June 2018 and repeated on 18 June 2019 noted: &quot;Turkey has been moving further away from the European Union. Turkey’s accession negotiations have therefore effectively come to a standstill and no further chapters can be considered for opening or closing and no further work towards the modernisation of the EU-Turkey Customs Union is foreseen.&quot; The European Council in March invited the Council to work on a mandate for the modernisation subject to the established conditionality. The Council resumed discussions on the modernisation at technical level in the Council in June 2021.</td>

<tr>
<td>UKRAINE (Art 29 negotiations)</td>
<td>The Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Area between the EU and Ukraine removed the majority of customs duties (more than 98%). For the remaining duties, Article 29 of the Agreement offers the possibility of accelerating and broadening the scope of elimination of customs duties by means of a review. This review was initiated in 2021 and first discussions were held in autumn 2021. Following Russia’s unprovoked and unjustified war of aggression against Ukraine, the EU introduced (by Regulation 2022/870 of 30 May 2022, Regulation 2023/1077 of 31 May 2023, and Regulation 2024/1392 of 14 May 2024) unilateral trade-liberalisation measures, including elimination of all remaining customs duties applicable on Ukrainian products. Consultations under Article 29 are ongoing with a view to agree further reciprocal tariff liberalisation. The outcome of this process will provide economic certainty and stable trade to both Ukraine and the EU, to farmers and businesses. This will also be an important step in the reconstruction of Ukraine and further integration into the EU internal market, as part of the country’s future accession to the Union.</td>

<tr>
<th>GENERAL OVERVIEW (see below for information on particular countries)</th>
<th>The EU has established a network of Association Agreements, which include reciprocal FTAs on trade in goods, with 8 countries of the Southern neighbourhood (all except Libya and Syria). The EU also encourages the countries of the region to agree FTAs between themselves and has promoted wide participation in the Pan-Euro Mediterranean system of cumulation for rules of origin (in which EFTA and Western Balkans countries also participate). On 14th December 2011, the Council authorised the Commission to open bilateral negotiations to establish Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Areas with Egypt, Jordan, Morocco and Tunisia. Negotiations with Morocco were launched in March 2013 and with Tunisia in October 2015 but are currently on hold. The new EU Trade Policy Review suggests to discuss options to modernise trade and investment relations with Morocco and Tunisia, to better adapt them to today’s challenges. A new sustainable investment initiative is also proposed to interested partners in the Southern Neighbourhood, in the form of stand-alone investment agreements or as part of the modernisation of existing trade agreements.</th> commitments, incorporating the Domestic Regulation disciplines, for certification. India and South Africa objected to the certification of the improved GATS schedules of commitments. Consultations (jointly with South Africa, bilaterally with India) took place in March 2023 but were not successful. The EU engaged with them bilaterally aiming at finding a solution.

An agreement was finally reached with India and South Africa in late December 2023 and confirmed at the Working Party on Domestic Regulation South Africa and India finally withdrew their objections (on 16 and 26 February respectively).

The disciplines entered into force for most JSI participants (57 Members). Five Members will follow soon with their corrigenda (Saudi Arabia, Nigeria, Chinese Taipei, Albania, Mexico) and another five (Brazil, Colombia, Philippines, Türkiye, Uruguay) have not submitted any certification request yet and, with the exception of the Philippines, will continue being late. Australia will pursue a different certification route (possible arbitration).

| E-Commerce | Supplementary negotiating directives were adopted in May 2019. | Plurilateral WTO negotiations on e-commerce were launched in Davos in January 2019 after a year of exploratory talks. The negotiations cover both goods and services and their aim is to agree on global rules on digital trade. So far 90 WTO Members have formally joined the talks. | Last round of technical negotiations took place on 22-25 April in Geneva. However, several important issues remain to be resolved at political level. |
| Energy Charter Treaty | The Negotiating Directives for the modernisation of the ECT were adopted by the Council on 15 July 2019. | The Commission tabled an initial text proposal in May 2020, aiming at the reform of investment protection and dispute settlement rules, as well as new provisions on sustainable development and climate change. The proposal was complemented in February 2021 by a proposal on the scope of investment protection in relation to fossil fuels. | An agreement in principle on the negotiating outcome was reached on 24 June 2022 at the ad hoc Charter Conference. The ‘phase 2’ WTO negotiations on the outstanding issues aim to achieve a comprehensive agreement in line with UN Sustainable Development Goal 14.6.

The 13th WTO Ministerial Conference on 26 February-1 March 2024 could not conclude the negotiations phase 2. | Following MC13, in April 2024 the Chair circulated a text that was on the table at MC13 and could serve as a basis of the further negotiating process. |
| Green Goods | Since July 2014 the EU and 16 other members (see below) of the World Trade Organization (WTO) have been negotiating an Environmental Goods Agreement (EGA) to remove barriers to trade in environmental or ‘green’ goods that are crucial for environmental protection and climate change mitigation. The next, 18th round took place in November and was followed by a Ministerial meeting in December 2016. Despite efforts, the deal could not yet be reached at a Ministerial meeting in December 2016 and the negotiations were shelved. Read more. | Further steps to be determined. |

A special focus is on developing countries and LDCs. Negotiations started in September 2020 and were concluded on 6 July 2023. More than two thirds of WTO Members participate in the initiative. On 25 February 2024, the participants finalised and published the text of the agreement, and subsequently tabled a request for legal incorporation into Annex 4 of the WTO Agreement (the relevant annex for plurilateral agreement).</td>
<td>Working Group III of UNCITRAL (United Nations Commission on International Trade Law) discussing ISDS (Investor-State Dispute Settlement) reform is progressing at a good pace with important issues for structural reform of ISDS, i.e. the creation of a Multilateral Investment Court, being discussed. These discussions have already delivered tangible results, as in July 2023, the UNCITRAL Commission reviewed and adopted four texts finalised by WGIII: Model Provisions on Mediation for International Investment Disputes, Guidelines on Mediation for International Investment Disputes, Code of conduct for arbitrators and its commentary, and Code of conduct for judges and its commentary. Importantly, the Code of conduct for judges is the first part of the work on a Multilateral Investment Court. These texts were officially published in January 2024. The Working Group completed in April 2024 its examination of the draft Statute of the Advisory Centre for Investment Dispute Resolution which is scheduled to be considered by the UNCITRAL Commission for adoption in principle, together with the Multilateral Investment Court.</td>

<td>The request for legal incorporation of the agreement will be discussed among WTO Members in the context of the WTO General Council. Once the request is approved by consensus, the agreement will be submitted for “acceptance” under domestic procedures. The agreement will then enter into force once 75 WTO Members have accepted it.</td>
<td>The UNCITRAL Commission is expected to consider for adoption in principle the draft Statute of the Advisory Centre for Investment Dispute Resolution, as well as a toolkit on Dispute Prevention and Mitigation, in July 2024. Substantive discussions of WGIII will continue on aspects that are relevant for the Multilateral Investment Court, including including a Tribunal of First Instance and Appellate Tribunal.</td>
