The definitions of employment and unemployment, as well as other survey characteristics follow in general the definitions and recommendations of Eurostat and the International Labour Organisation. The definition of unemployment is further specified in Commission Regulation (EC) No 1897/2000. The European Central Bank (ECB) uses short term LFS statistics related to Euro area. Key users include NSI's, international organizations, news agencies and researchers which use various aspects of EU-LSF data for international or intra EU comparisons.

The LFS coverage omits communal establishments, excepting NHS housing and students in halls of residence. Members of the armed forces are only included if they live in private accommodation. The LFS, by not sampling from communal establishments, excludes approximately 1.5 % of the total GB population.

For 2014 deadline for transmitting the data was respected.

CoP14 Coherence and comparability	PC14 Consistency and comparability	14.1 /14. 1	4.2.1	S17.2	Pls provide a succinct assessment of the results of the consistency check of the statistics with other related domains or data sets with which the statistics must show coherence (“external consistency”). The results should provide a relative objective measure to facilitate cross-country comparability, e.g. be presented as a ratio of the inconsistency between compared statistics, as a percentage of GDP, where appropriate.	Information on the assessment of the results of the consistency check of the statistics with other related domains (“external consistency”). Coherence of LFS data with National Accounts data, registered unemployment and Business statistics data. Generally coherence to other statistics can be limited due to different sources, different scopes or different coverage and units. The coherence of LFS data with registered unemployment and with National Accounts data is limited. For a summary of the deviations see: http://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/web/products-statistical-working-papers/-/KS-TC-15-004 (Chapter 8)
			4.2.2 4.2.3	S 18.1	Pls provide a succinct assessment of the time consistency, specifying (i) whether the time series presents breaks and if so explaining the reasons for the breaks; (ii) the length of the series for which back data are consistent; and (iii) whether the statistics are consistent across the various frequencies (monthly/quarterly/annual) where relevant.	The information applies only to LFS detailed survey results series. The LFS adjusted series (including LFS main indicators) include corrections for breaks. Since 1983, improved comparability between results of successive surveys has been achieved, mainly due to increased harmonisation, greater stability of content and higher frequency of surveys. However, the following factors may somewhat detract from perfect comparability: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - population figures used for population adjustment are revised at certain intervals on the basis of new population censuses; - reference periods may not have remained the same for a given country due to the transition to a quarterly continuous survey; - countries may modify their sample designs; - in order to improve the quality of results, countries may change the content or order of their questionnaire.

					Information on EU-LFS breaks and individual country breaks are documented: http://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/statistics-explained/index.php/EU_labour_force_survey_%E2%80%93_data_and_publication Major country-specific changes in recent years: 2006: Move from seasonal to calendar quarters. 2007: Redefinition of some NUTS 2 regions. 2008: Change of residency rules (i.e. the six-month residency rule removed from household surveys), in order to improve coverage of short-term migrants and temporary foreign workers; Implementation of the wave approach. 2010: Adaptations to the sample design relating to multiple-occupancy addresses and to households that have only adults aged 75 plus.
