The amount of the pension shall be ►M25 4,275 % ◀ of the basic salary last received for each full year in office and one-twelfth of that sum for each complete month. The maximum pension shall be ►M8 70 % ◀ of the basic salary last received.

▼M4

When the person concerned has performed various duties in the Commission or Court of Justice, the salary on which the pension is to be calculated shall be related to the proportion of time spent by the person concerned in each of those various duties. This paragraph shall not apply to members of the Commission or of the Court who are in office on the date of entry into force of this Regulation or who cease to hold office before that date, if they so request.

▼M25

By derogation from the first subparagraph, for Members of the Commission and of the Court of Justice in office before 1 May 2004, and until the end of their functions in, respectively, the Commission and the Court of Justice, the amount of the pension shall be 4,5 % of the basic salary last received for each full year in office.

He shall be entitled to the maximum pension if the incapacity is the result of disablement or illness contracted in the performance of his duties;
- (b) Where disablement is temporary, he shall be entitled, until he recovers, to a pension at the rate of ►M4 60 ◀ % of the basic salary last received, if the disablement or illness was contracted in the performance of his duties, and ►M4 30 ◀ % in other cases. ▼M20

Nevertheless, a former Member of the Commission or of the Court who has held office at least until the age of ►M25 63 ◀ or is entitled to benefit under the disability pension scheme provided for in Article 10 shall continue to be entitled without restriction to sickness benefits under the scheme provided for in the Staff Regulations. The contributions shall be calculated on the basis of the last transitional allowance, adjusted to take account of successive adaptations.

A former Member of the Commission or of the Court who has ceased to hold office before the age of ►M25 63 ◀ and who, at the end of the period during which he is in receipt of the transitional allowance provided for in Article 7, is not entitled to benefit under either the pension scheme provided for in Article 8 or the disability pension scheme provided for in Article 10 may continue to qualify for the cover provided for in the second and third paragraphs of this Article, provided that he does not engage in any gainful occupation ►M25 — ◀. He must then pay the full amount of the contributions necessary for the cover provided for in Article 72 (1) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities. The contributions shall be calculated on the basis of the last transitional allowance, adjusted to take account of successive adaptations.

▼BArticle 12*

Where a third party is responsible for the disablement or death of a member, the rights of that member or those entitled under him to bring legal proceedings against the third party shall devolve on the Community to the extent to which they incur obligations under this pension scheme.

Article 13

The transitional allowance provided for in Article 7, the pension provided for in Article 8 and the pensions provided for in Article 10 shall not be drawn concurrently by the same person. Where a member of the Commission or of the Court is entitled to claim benefit under more than one of those provisions, only that provision which is the most favourable to the claimant shall be applied.

Article 14

Where a member of the Commission or Court dies during his term of office, the surviving spouse or dependent children shall be entitled, until the end of the third month following that in which death occurs, to the remuneration to which the member of the Commission or of the Court would have been entitled under Articles 2, 3 and 4 (1).

- the survivor's pension for a first orphan of both father and mother shall not be less than 12 % of the basic salary received at the time of death. ▼B

2. The total amount of these survivors' pensions shall not exceed the amount of the pension of the member or former member of the Commission or of the Court on which they are calculated. The maximum total survivors' pensions payable shall be divided, where applicable, between the beneficiaries in accordance with the above percentages.

3. Survivors' pensions shall be granted from the first day of the calendar month following the date of death; however, where the provisions of Article 14 are applied, eligibility shall not commence until the first day of the fourth month following that in which death occurred.

4. Entitlement to a survivor's pension shall cease at the end of the calendar month in which the person entitled dies. Moreover, entitlement to an orphan's pension shall cease at the end of the month

6. A ►M25 surviving spouse ◄ 's entitlement to a survivor's pension shall cease on remarriage. ►M25 The surviving spouse ◄ shall then be entitled to immediate payment of a lump sum equal to twice the annual amount of ►M25 the ◄ survivor's pension.

▼M11

7. Where a member leaves a ►M25 surviving spouse ◄ and also orphans of a previous marriage or other persons entitled under him, or ►M25 ——— ◄ orphans of different marriages, the total pension shall be apportioned by analogy with the provisions of Articles 22, 27 and 28 of Annex VIII to the Staff Regulations for officials.

▼M20

8. The ►M25 surviving spouse ◄ and dependent children of a Member or former Member of the Commission or of the Court shall be entitled to sickness benefits under the social security scheme provided for in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities if they are not eligible for benefits of the same nature and of the same level under another social security scheme.

▼BArticle 16*

A member of the Commission or of the Court who is relieved of his duties on grounds of serious misconduct shall forfeit any right to transitional allowance and retirement pension; this shall not, however, affect those entitled under him.

Article 17

Should the Council decide to increase the basic salary, it shall at the same time decide on an appropriate increase in the rates of existing pensions.

Article 18

Payment of the benefits provided for in this pension scheme shall be entered in the budget of the Communities. Member States shall jointly guarantee payment of these benefits in accordance with the scale for financing such expenditure.
